Shreveport Bus
Should Be Taken to the Courts

As you know, Continental Trailways' attempt to abandon bus service between Hope and Shreveport was given a hearing before the Arkansas Commerce Commission in Little Rock last Friday.

Following the hearing the commission took the matter under advisement. But neither Hope nor Lewisville nor Bradley along Highway 29 in Arkansas should let matters rest if the commission decides to go along with the company and permit dropping the bus.

This is a two-roundtrips-a-day schedule between Hope and Shreveport. Frank Kegley, Continental Trailways traffic director, told the commission it's costing the company a deficit of $8,000 a year.

This newspaper seldom attacks a transportation company wishing to drop an unprofitable operation—but we do mean to attack this suspension between Hope and Shreveport. It's the last feeder-line, bus or rail, that Hope has for passengers and package service. We opposed the dropping of Missouri Pacific bus service between Hope and Nashville some years ago, but it was dropped anyway, thereby cutting off fast delivery of parts for automobile dealers and other Nashville merchants who ordered items from Little Rock and got delivery by transfer to the Nashville bus at Hope.

Now the same service damage faces us on supplies from Shreveport. The towns along Highway 29 and Louisiana No. 3 should unite in a lawsuit if either Arkansas or Louisiana attempt to validate the dropping of bus service. An annual loss of $8,000 is paltry for a feeder-line—you might say it is part of the price a company pays for doing business on the east-west main line.

Seeks Ways to Get Federal Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers said Tuesday he is looking for ways to take advantage of $5.35 million in federal funds available to Arkansas to spur employment in government-related fields.

The money was the state's share of the 1971 federal Emergency Employment Act. "Some have accused this program of being political, but I want to take advantage of it for Arkansas," Bumpers said.

The governor said that all state agencies can participate in the program, but, Bumpers said, the state Correction Department could be a chief beneficiary. The money could be used to speed transition from the armed trusty system to paid nonconvict guards, he said.

Bumpers said use of the funds was discussed Monday when his cabinet met near Lake Dardanelle.

The cabinet also discussed ways to reduce the cost of insurance on state-owned vehicles. Bumpers said the state could save $60,000 if a plan could be devised to provide that the insurer would be paid a percentage of the premiums and that all payments above claims and the percentage to the insurer would revert to the state.

Jury Picked in Murder Trial

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A jury of seven men and five women heard conflicting testimony Tuesday in the first-degree murder trial of Harris Ulmer of Savannah, Ga.

Ulmer is charged in the fatal shooting June 26 of Paul Ramos Guajardo, 35, of near Little Rock.

The victim's 28-year-old brother, Alex, testified that Guajardo was slain while sitting in a chair in front of a service station and chatting with two persons.

Ulmer's wife testified, however, that her husband fired a pistol after Guajardo drew a "shiny object" partly from his pocket during a tense verbal exchange.

Heavy Rains in Area Mixed Blessing

Rains last week came as a mixed blessing to agricultural producers in Southwest Arkansas; the moisture helped the crops but slowed weed and insect control.

In a series of special crop reports by Agricultural Extension Service agents in the area, the following observations were made:

Five cases of screwworms were confirmed in Little River County. An intensive spraying program of all cattle in the southern half of the county was started by eradication personnel. The recent rains helped all crops and pastures.

5,000 South Vietnamese Start Drive

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Five thousand South Vietnamese paratroopers have moved into the jungles of War Zone D northeast of Saigon to check on North Vietnamese infiltration and search for enemy supply depots.

U.S. and South Vietnamese troops have not operated in strength in the vast enemy marshalling area for several months. "We think there might be some infiltration," said one senior U.S. adviser to the South Vietnamese.

U.S. field commanders say the withdrawal of 66,000 American troops from the provinces north of Saigon has left a big gap in the collection of intelligence. They acknowledge that they do not know what is going on in War Zone D or the extent of enemy infiltration across the Cambodian border even though U.S. forces have increased their aerial reconnaissance and sensor activity in the area.

War Zone D for years has been a staging area and base for enemy attacks on Saigon, Bien Hoa and other population centers.

The brigade of paratroopers, pulled out of reserve forces, moved into the jungles Sunday, but field commanders withheld disclosure of the operation until today for security reasons.

There have been no reports of significant contact.

South Vietnamese spokesmen say the purpose of the operation is to ward off enemy attacks during the National Assembly elections Aug. 29 and the presidential election Oct. 3.

Meanwhile, South Vietnamese troops on a similar mission in eastern Cambodia 55 miles west of Saigon continued to meet resistance. Four North Vietnamese were reported killed in a brief clash this morning in the third consecutive day of fighting south of the Saigon-Phnom Penh highway.

Yearning for a Second Try at Life Comes to All of Us at Times

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK AP — "Oh, to be 70 again!" said octogenarian Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, as a pretty girl passed by.

The yearning for a second try at life comes to all of us now and then. Or at least we feel it would be better to be any other age than the age we happen to be at the moment.

What do you think you would actually do if you could relive not all your life over again but just one year for every decade up until now. It's a teasing thought, isn't it.

Well, if I were 10 years old, I think I'd—

Peking Tosses Charge of Double-dealing at U.S. on China Issue

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Peking threw a charge of "double-dealing" today against U.S. efforts to solve the China question in the United Nations.

It accused Secretary of State William P. Rogers of lying in trying to push "the preposterous proposition of two Chinas."

"Rogers' so-called realities of the two Chinas are his sheer fancy," said Red China's official news agency in a broadcast from Peking. "The clumsy 'two-Chinas' trick played by U.S. imperialism is absolutely illegal and futile."

This condemnation came as the United States was working behind the scenes to line up support for two resolutions, one inviting Red China to join the United Nations and the other to prevent the expulsion of Nationalist China.

Diplomatic sources said U.S. Chief Delegate George Bush outlined the two resolutions and asked for cosponsors at a meeting of representatives from about 20 delegations Tuesday at his office opposite U.N. headquarters.

The sources said the resolutions would be submitted for the General Assembly session opening Sept. 21 as soon as the delegations determined whether their governments would be come cosponsors.

The first resolution would offer the Communist regime in Peking a seat in the United Nations, would specify that Nationalist government on Formosa would continue to be seated and would direct the specialized U.N. agencies to "take the decision into account."

As a further safeguard to Nationalist China's membership, the second resolution would classify any resolution to expel the Nationalists as an "important" question requiring for its adoption a two-thirds majority of those voting.

This is the maneuver by which the United States barred Red China's admission to the United Nations last year. Asked at his news conference Monday whether the U.S. government was dropping its claim that Peking's admission was an important question, Secretary of State William P. Rogers said the Nixon administration's decision to no longer oppose the admission of the Communist regime made this "academic."

Albania and 17 other friends of Peking have already submitted the annual resolution to seat the Red Chinese and expel the Nationalists.

Adoption of this resolution would automatically throw out the two American proposals, and the United States will seek a special vote in the assembly to have its resolutions voted on first.

The Americans' "important question" resolution was approved last year by a vote of 66-52, with 7 abstentions, but the fate of the similar resolution this year depends on whether opposition to the expulsion of the Nationalists outweighs the recent swing in Peking's favor.

Astronauts Start for Home Today

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 15's astronauts wind up six days of moon exploration today, firing out of lunar orbit for the trip home and man's farthest-out space walk.

Before they leave, they'll add another dimension to one of history's greatest scientific expeditions. They'll eject into orbit a small satellite to probe additional moon secrets.

David R. Scott, James B. Irwin and Alfred M. Worden will complete the experiments in their flying science laboratory when they kick the satellite loose at 4:10 p.m. EDT.

At 5:20 p.m. they plan to trigger the engine of their space-

More Steel Firms Hike Their Prices

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Three more major steel firms have announced price increases on almost every kind of steel product, saying the boosts were needed to offset the cost of the new labor agreement reached Sunday with the United Steelworkers Union. A fourth steel-maker boosted prices on some selected products.

Announcing the average 8 percent hikes Tuesday were Wheeling-Pittsburgh and Inland Steel Corps., the sixth and seventh largest, and Lukens Steel Co. of Coatesville, Pa., ranked 14th.

Kaiser Steel announced increased prices, effective today, on selected trade and tubular products and said it was studying boosts on other types of steel.

U.S. Steel Corp., the nation's largest, was the first to announce the increases Monday, hours after the basic steel industry settled on the new contract and four other major steel producers followed suit that day.

Meanwhile, companies which had geared down in an anticipation of a strike said they were slowly returning to production but were laying off workers because of a lack of new orders. Some customers had stockpiled large quantities of steel earlier this year in case a strike occurred.

Wynn Woman Dies in Wreck

WYNNE, Ark. (AP) — A 53-year-old Wynne woman was killed Tuesday night when the car in which she was a passenger collided head-on with another car on U.S. 64 about seven miles east of here.

State Police identified the dead woman as Ora Lee Winters, a passenger in a car driven by Flossie Diamond, 40, of Parkin.

Authorities said the Diamond vehicle was struck by an automobile driven by Jack Smith, 48, of Wynne as the Smith car made a left turn onto the highway.

Another passenger in the Diamond car, Minnie Mae Black, 22, of Parkin, was injured, along with the drivers of both vehicles, and all were taken to a Wynne hospital for treatment.

Ky Petitions Court to Get on Ballot

By J. T. WOLKERSTORFER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky asked the Supreme Court today for a place on the Oct. 3 presidential ballot, but his petitions lacked 38 of the 100 necessary certified endorsements by provincial councilmen.

"I have not given up," Ky told a news conference. "I am still fighting. I will fight until the last minute."

If the court rejects his petitions, Ky said, "then we will see what happens."

Minutes later, retired Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh, who filed his qualifying petitions last week, announced his support for Ky's attempts to get on the ballot. A spokesman for Minh said it was "unthinkable that the vice president of the country should not be able to run for president."

"It reflects on the whole democratic process. It means that the vice president can be pushed around not only by the president but by a mere province chief," he added. Ky's failure to qualify would make the election a two-man race between President Nguyen Van Thieu and Minh.

The vice president accused Thieu of trying to block his candidacy and called this "an obvious and undeniable travesty of the democratic process."

Ky's failure to qualify would make the Oct. 3 election a two-man race between Thieu and retired Gen. Duong Van "Big" Minh, both of whom filed qualifying petitions last week.

Ky arrived at the Supreme Court 2½ hours before the filing deadline for candidates, at the head of a 15 car convoy that included a group of air force police serving as his personal security detachment.

Ky smiled but remained silent as he made his way into the heavily guarded building through a crowd of pushing, shouting newsmen.

Ky had been reported planning to file his petitions even if they were short of the number of endorsements required by the new election law which the National Assembly adopted under strong pressure from Thieu.

Ky was expected to accompany this gesture with a charge that many provincial councilmen and national assemblymen were forced by Thieu to sign blank petitions even before the law was passed and thus their endorsements of the president's candidacy were invalid. A court ruling in Ky's favor could open the way for many of these to switch their endorsements to Ky, who was said to be about 17 signatures shy of the necessary 100.

The possibility that Ky might not make the ballot sent U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker to see "Big" Minh Tuesday night.

Quarantine of Horses Ends Friday

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. R. M. Thomas, state veterinarian, said Tuesday that Friday would mark the end of a quarantine that was imposed last month on the movement of horses in Arkansas.

The quarantine was placed on any equines that had not been immunized at least 14 days against Venezuelan equine encephalomyelitis, a form of sleeping sickness often fatal to horses.

Thomas said about 100,000 of the estimated 120,000 horses in Arkansas had been vaccinated with an experimental vaccine provided at federal expense to prevent spread of VEE into Arkansas from Texas.

The disease broke out in serious proportions in Texas.

The vaccination of Arkansas horses should be completed in about a week's time, Thomas said.

President Is Against School Busing, Flays HEW's Austin Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disavowing his administration's action in an Austin, Tex., school desegregation case, President Nixon has promised Southern cities he will stand for no more busing than "the minimum required by law."

Nixon found fault under recent Supreme Court decisions a plan submitted by local officials and ordered into effect by a federal judge. And he said Tuesday his administration will not use those Supreme Court decisions to push for extensive busing of pupils to eliminate racial segregation.

Job Bill to Sail Through the House

WASHINGTON (AP) — A billion-dollar appropriation to get jobs for up to 173,000 persons in public-service fields is expected to sail through the House today with bipartisan blessings.

That's the price tag approved by the House Appropriations Committee to finance the first half of a two-year emergency employment assistance program enacted earlier this year.

Backed by the Nixon administration and the Democratic leadership in Congress, the program will give preference to unemployed Vietnam veterans seeking jobs as firemen, policemen, sanitation and conservation workers.

The number of jobs will depend on local wage scales, with a top of $12,000 for professional employees.

Every state is ticketed for a share, ranging from $100.4 million for California to $1.5 million for smaller states.

The money will be parceled out by the Labor Department to state governments, cities and other jurisdictions. The amount will depend on each area's percentage and severity of unemployment compared with national averages.

To be eligible, areas would have to have recorded three consecutive months of unemployment by at least 4.5 percent of the work force.

The federal contribution would be 90 percent of total wages with individual governments paying the remainder.

Wreck Victim to Be Buried in Texas

Mr. and Mrs. David Hasty remained in serious condition in a local hospital Wednesday following a one-car wreck Monday near Spring Hill in which their five-year-old daughter Angella, was killed.

Two other Hasty children, David, 3, and Buddy, 2, were released from the hospital Monday.

The body of the victim was sent to San Angelo, Texas Wednesday for burial. Services will be held at 3:30 p.m. Thursday at Johnson Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be in Fairmont Cemetery.

The order was issued Feb. 13, 1969, after complaints of poor service by the company, which operates in Little River County and parts of Howard, Lafayette and Hempstead counties.

The PSC order Tuesday said the company and a representative of Walnut Hill customers reported that the complaints had been substantially resolved.

The commission also refused Tuesday to rehear an application by Four States Telephone Co. for a rate increase. The PSC approved an increase last month that would produce $334,845 in new income for Four States, which had sought an increase large enough to produce $75,273 additional income.

The PSC also: —Authorized Magazine Telephone Co. to borrow $147,000 from the Stromberg - Carlson Corp. to purchase an addition to its central office equipment at the Magazine exchange and a new exchange at Blue Mountain in Logan County.

—Authorized Arkansas Telephone Co. Inc. to borrow $290,000 from the Rural Electrification Administration to buy and install a central office at Fairfield Bay on Greers Ferry Lake.

May Tag War Clause to Draft Bill

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House appeared ready today to approve an antiwar amendment as the price for extending the draft two more years.

But while House approval was expected with little trouble, antiwar senators said they will not even have to filibuster to block enactment of the draft bill until at least September.

House Armed Services Chairman F. Edward Hebert, D-La., says the Indochina war language worked out by House-Senate conferees "will not tie the President's hands."

The House, by ever narrower votes, has turned down all previous war-pullout measures.

The draft bill's language urges President Nixon to negotiate a final date with Hanoi for a ceasefire and total withdrawal of U.S. forces from Indochina in return for release of all American prisoners of war.

The narrowest House rejection of such a proposal was the last: 219-176 refusal to accept the Senate's original amendment setting a nine-month deadline on the U.S. pullout.

Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., said Tuesday he and Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, will easily be able to block Senate draft action until Congress begins a month-long recess Friday.

"It will not take a full-blown filibuster," Cranston said.

He also said antiwar senators will be able to filibuster the draft bill indefinitely after Congress returns Sept. 8 if Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield supports them.

Mansfield, author of the original nine-month deadline, still has not said whether he will accept the compromise and help cut off the filibuster.

House draft action originally was scheduled Tuesday but hit a parliamentary snag which was resolved when the Rules Committee reversed a previous vote allowing challenges to two sections.

Telephone Complaints Resolved

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Public Service Commission Tuesday dismissed its order for Walnut Hill Telephone Co. to show why the company's franchise should not be revoked.

The order was issued Feb. 13, 1969, after complaints of poor service by the company, which operates in Little River County and parts of Howard, Lafayette and Hempstead counties.

The PSC order Tuesday said the company and a representative of Walnut Hill customers reported that the complaints had been substantially resolved.

GOPs Want Wage-Price Restraints

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon said Wednesday he would consider a wage-price review board to combat inflation if hearings in Congress convince him it could be done "without stifling the economy."

In a switch of tactics, Nixon softened his once-rigid opposition to the idea of a wage-price review board as a dozen Republican senators proposed a system of wage-price restraints to Capitol Hill.

Nixon reiterated his opposition to the wage-price board approach which has been urged by Federal Reserve Board Chairman Arthur F. Burns, but indicated to newsmen he is now more open-minded about it.

He said the idea of such a board would be considered only if congressional hearings "convince me that enforcing an incomes policy could be accomplished without stifling the economy."

Shortly before Nixon held his news conference, Treasury Secretary John B. Connally said in a statement the administration, while opposing a wage-price board and the restraints it implies, now welcomes a "full-fledged debate in the Congress" over the issue.

Nixon followed that up with his statement.

The President said he would bring the power of his office to bear in an effort to see that industry and labor contract settlements "are responsible."

Even this classified as "incomes policy," which is economic jargon for the use of White House power to hold down big wage and price increases. But the wage-price board approach would imply some type of enforcement, as opposed to presidential efforts to achieve lower wage and price boosts through persuasion.

Nixon reiterated his prediction that 1971 "would be a good year for the economy" and 1972 "a very good year."

Obituaries Vote Cuts Aid to Pakistan and Greece

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has voted to suspend the Greek and Pakistani military governments from U.S. foreign-aid rolls in an effort to force internal reforms.

Withholding all $118 million from the Greek military junta to press return of democratic rule was upheld by the House 122 to 57 Tuesday night after a shouting, accusation-trading debate.

Cutoff of up to $445 million aid for Pakistan until it resolves turmoil blamed for the flight of 10 million East Pakistani refugees to India was upheld without a fight.

The House then passed a foreign-aid authorization with $3.4 billion for each of the next two years. The 200-192 vote sent the bill to the Senate.

Backers of Greek aid, led by Rep. James A. Burke, D-Mass., tried to remove the ban on grounds the military junta has brought stability to Greece, wants to restore democracy and must be kept a friendly NATO ally.

But Rep. Wayne L. Hays, D-Ohio—with Burke shouting objections from the aisle—accused Burke of making a "patent plea for dictatorship."

Hays said the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which wrote the curb, was only trying to pressure the Greek junta into living up to its promise to restore democracy to the country which invented it.

House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford said he believes President Nixon will restore the Greek aid by declaring in writing that the aid is in America's overriding interest, an escape clause in the bill.

Even then the bill would limit Greek aid to the $90 million approved last year, not the President's $118 million.

Rep. Cornelius E. Gallagher, D-N.J., who won the Pakistani aid suspension in committee, said it would cut off $225 million new aid and up to $220 million already approved but not allocated.

DE QUEEN, Ark. (AP) — A 5-month-old child was dead on arrival at a hospital here early today of apparent suffocation.

De Queen police identified the child as Donna Lynn Coffman, group there are soloist, a ladies daughter of Alice Coffman, 15, of Itasca, Tex.

Police said the child, her mother and maternal grandparents were sleeping in a car with two other persons when the apparent accident occurred. Police said the car was parked in a field across from the fair ground here and that the grandmother found the baby dead when she woke up.

The group was en route to Gentry, Ark., to visit relatives.

Singers Entertain Kiwanis Club

The Unity Music Makers, a talented group of singers from Unity Baptist Church, presented a concert of Gospel Music before this week's meeting of the Kiwanis Club. Kiwanian Gordon Renshaw, pastor of Unity Church arranged for and introduced the program.

Singers in the group are Mrs. Quetta Ellis, Mrs. Linda Brown, Mrs. Ruth Hicks, Mrs. Shirley Cooper, Bob Hand, Music Director at Unity Church, and Pastor Gordon Renshaw.

Edward Cooper accompanied the group on the piano and Mike Huckabee of Garrett Memorial Baptist Church assisted on the Bass Guitar. The entire group sings together, and from the child as Donna Lynn Coffman, group there are soloist, a ladies trio, and a mixed quartet. One of the appealing things concerning the program presented by this group is that all their music and lyrics have been composed and arranged by Mr. Cooper, an extra-ordinary musician, and an English teacher by profession.

Among the ten or twelve selections rendered were "Linger at Calvary", "Gods Got a Remedy", "The Oil of Gladness", "Send More Oh Lord of the Harvest", "All things are working for Good", "In the Valley of Despair", "Till You've Been Redeemed", and other truly Gospel Songs.

The Unity Music Makers have recently recorded an Album of their music, all of which Mr. Cooper composed and arranged. In their recordings Mrs. Wanda King of Conway added to the accompaniment on the Church Organ.

On Friday evening of this week at 7:30 The Unity Music Makers will present a Concert in the auditorium of Unity Baptist Church which is open to all lovers of good Gospel Music.

At the conclusion of the Friday Concert Record Albums and Sheet Music will be available for sale with the entire proceeds being used for the Mission Program sponsored by Unity Baptist Church and her sister churches.

Marianna Lifts Curfew

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP) — Mayor John Oxner said Tuesday that a curfew imposed Friday night after a disagreement between white merchants and black customers had been lifted.

The curfew had been put into effect as a preventive measure, Oxner said.

CHATTER

By: "Bill"

Retailers are constantly trying to find out what customers want most. Happy customers are happy buyers and no matter what anyone says... that is what we are all looking for.

At the cost of one hundred thousand dollars, a survey was made by Consumer Products Division of E.I. DuPont and it came up with some interesting facts.

Most of us are in the store 34.8 minutes and we manage to spend from $5 to $25 in that time. We make at least one unplanned purchase. The women's apparel department gets 27 per cent of all purchases and 26 per cent goes for health and beauty aids. You would think the big mass merchandise stores have everything but surprisingly enough... 58 per cent of us do not buy the item planned because it out of stock.

Store and what do like most in a store? What do like, ease of parking, variety of merchandise... yes, even pricing... all came in second to Quality Merchandise.

Eleven years ago when we started Raley's Style Shoppe we knew we would not sell everyone. But with quality merchandise we hoped to keep the ones we do sell... happy. This has been our aim and is perhaps why it has been such a pleasure doing business with you.

We begin our 12th year this week, with all new fall merchandise.

Do come by and browse. The place

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

HELP FOR MENTALLY DISTURBED

Dear Helen:
Two recent letters prompt me to write. First, a woman wondered why psychiatric help was so expensive that ordinary people can't afford it. The second described touchingly and well the plight of an outcast who has had a nervous breakdown.

There's help in "RECOVERY, INC." and branches of this great "association for nervous and former mental patients" are in almost every large city.

Recovery, Inc. was founded in 1937 by the late Abraham A. Low, M.D. Members learn how to improve their mental health in weekly meetings which are open to the public at no charge. Over 840 self-help Recovery groups operate throughout the United States and Canada.

Though Recovery Inc. does not replace the physician, and is supplementary to professional aid, many of us have found in it the added something that makes us able to cope with our problems.—J.R.

Dear Readers:

Further information about RECOVERY, INC. may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to national headquarters, 116 South Michigan Ave., Chicago, Illinois, 60603.—H.

Dear Helen:

It's true, waiting lists are long at most reasonably priced counseling facilities, but the Family Service Agency of Modesto, California, is solving this problem.

Here we hire, as part-time psychiatric social workers, qualified people in other professions. For example, a high school counselor or a local minister with a Master's Degree in psychology may devote several hours of his spare time each week to family counseling. With a number of these interested and involved persons working for us, we've seen our waiting list dwindle. Nowadays, clients in desperate need of help can receive it within hours, not weeks or months. And we manage this within our Allotted budget.—BOARD MEMBER, MODESTO AREA FAMILY SERVICE AGENCY

FAMILY SERVICE AGENCIES EVERYWHERE: Read and heed. This system works: I know, for I have observed it personally. Modesto's community-centered Family Service Agency has a key word—Involvement. Its part-time counselors (moonlighters if you will) aren't simply working for a few extra dollars. They're concerned and determined to help. And they do!—H.
Dear Helen:

The Catholic Charities (sometimes called Catholic Welfare) offers reasonably priced counseling services to disturbed people or upset families. Fees are based on ability to pay, and the service is for all faiths—even for those who have little or no faith at all.—K.
Dear Helen:

"Desperate" said, "only the rich or the very poor can afford psychiatric help. And the poor must wait, and wait, and wait."

In New Jersey's Bergen County, we have six Mental Health Centers, all of which operate on an "ability to pay" basis. Our fees range from 50 cents to $17.00 per treatment session, and we provide the full range of outpatient psychiatric services. There is no question that additional services, centers and staff are needed, and that we all have waiting lists, but we DO help many people and our service is not limited to the poor.—ADMINISTRATIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Readers:

Most larger cities have mental health centers and psychiatric clinics which charge much less than the regulation $25—$60 per hour fees of private psychologists and psychiatrists. But getting an early appointment is the big problem. We need many more such services.—H.

Dear Helen:

Maybe others are different, but I doubt if psychiatry could help me. The very thought of that $35 an hour bill, building up weekly for six months or more, would drive me bonkers.

Seems to me a mentally disturbed person, who knows he

Country Club Dance

An adult dance was held at the Hope Country Club on Saturday night, July 31, with about 50 in attendance. Yellow decorations were seen at points of interest in the clubhouse.

Taped music was used for dancing, and chips 'n' dips were served with cold drinks throughout the evening. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Mosier of Arkadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Solomon of Wynne.

Host couples were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snowden and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Crouch.

Duplicate Bridge Play

The Hope Duplicate Bridge Club had its weekly meeting at the Diamond on Monday, August 2 with 3 tables of players. Winning couples were: first, R. L. Broach and Mike Kelly; second, Mrs. E. J. Whitman and Mrs. B. W. Edwards; third, Mrs. R. L. Broach and Mrs. Marian Holder.

Coming, Going

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hickman of Houston spent a week with Mrs. Hickman's sister, Mrs. A. M. Hewitt and Mr. Hewitt. The Hickmans were enroute to Houston from a vacation in Oklahoma, Missouri, and Arkansas.

Mrs. R.H. Barr had as her guests last week: Mr. and Mrs. H.J. Vineyard, Erie, Pa.; Mrs. John Barr, John, Jr. and Edward, Dallas; Mrs. Ann Posner and Paul, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bayless, Murfreesboro.

Mrs. Gaylord Solomon and Mande of Wynne are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Crouch.

can only get someone to listen if he pays out his life's blood, would turn off the high priced listener in the first five minutes.—DOM
Dear Helen:

You've already mentioned NEUROTICS ANONYMOUS as a help-source for disturbed people. The address (again) is Room 426, Colorado Bldg., 1341 "G" Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and local chapter address may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope.—MRS. W.J.

Minnelli Marriage Is Dissolved

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Film director Vincente Minnelli and his third wife, Denise Minnelli, had their marriage dissolved Monday at a Superior Court hearing. They were married 10 years.

The judge set Oct. 11 for another hearing to divide the community property.

Coming, Going

Miss Velma Goss visited Mrs. Florence Kenley in Kilgore, Tex., last week and Mrs. Frank Turner accompanied her home to visit Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Seccrest.

Mrs. Frances Reynerson has recently moved back to Hope from Amarillo, Tex., and is residing at 908 S. Walnut. Visiting her this week are Mrs. Lloyd Willis and son, Mark, who live in a suburb of St. Louis.

Mrs. Dick Voris and two daughters of Midland, Tex., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thrash.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Taylor, Crossett, spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Orval Taylor.

U.S. Staggers But Leads Pan-Am Games

By HUBERT MIZELL.
Associated Press Sports Writer
CALI, Colombia (AP) — U.S. heroes are dead in men's gymnastics, staggering in baseball and fighting for dear life in basketball at the Pan American Games.

That's the bad news.

Uncle Sam's vastly superior track forces continued to harvest gold medals by the basketful Tuesday night to keep the highly favored Yankees a step ahead of an ambitious sports army from Cuba.

That, for USA faithful, is the good news.

The United States had a 21-11 edge over Castro's kids in gold medals and a 52-39 bulge overall, but Cuba had the USA on the ropes both in baseball and basketball.

Brazil almost sent the American cagers home, but 6-foot-10 Bob McAdoo of the University of North Carolina ripped a jumper to save the Tuesday game, 81-70 in overtime.

Even at that, using the complicated international playoff system, the USA will be finished if Brazil happens to upset Cuba by more than three points. Cuba earlier shocked the Yanks 73-69.

Cuba's favored baseball team got a clutch two-run single by big Armando Caprio after shabby USA fielding loaded the bases in the seventh inning to edge the Americans 4-3.

Cuba pulled another in its line of international athletic surprises by capturing the gold medal in men's gymnastics, long a producer of medals for the United States.

The bleak afternoon became the bright evening as American track and field performers grabbed six golds in eight events to make it 14-of-16 in men's events since the games opened.

Javelin thrower Cary Feldmann of Seattle, 100-meter dash heroine Iris Davis of Pompano Beach, Fla., 400-meter hurdles flash Ralph Mann of San Diego, and 800 meters runner Ken Swenson of San Pedro, Calif., all won golds in record performances.

Larry Young took 4½ hours to do it, but the Sibley, Mo., resident claimed a gold for the USA in the 50-kilometer walk.

Young was the Games' first repeat gold medal winner in track.

The United States' gold medal opportunities increase later in the week when swimming and diving gets going full throttle. With 33 golds available, the Yanks are expected to load up their pockets.

Boxing continued to develop as a USA strong point as heavyweight Duane Bobick, one of 12 brothers in a Bowls, Minn., family, scored a first-round knockout over Colombia's Wesley Zuleta to lead three men into the semifinals.

The American fighters are undefeated. A'so among the winners Tuesday night were South Carolina convict Bobby Lee Hunter in the flyweight division and Ray Russell among the light-heavies.

Despite all the USA-Cuba business, Tuesday night's most sensational performance came in the 200-meter dash when Jamaica's Don Quarrie equalled the world record of 19.8 seconds.

Quarrie, a Southern Cal collegiate ace, needed a flash showing to beat the 20.3 efforts of 18-year-old Detroit schoolboy Marshall Dill and Trinidad-Tobago's Edwin Roberts, who had a dead heat for the silver medal.

The USA's John Carlos set the old mark of 20.5 in 1967 at Winnipeg.

Padre Dentist Takes Bite Out of Cards

By HAL ROCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Steve Arlin, the pitching dentist, took some of the bite out of the St. Louis Cardinals and it turned up, of all places, in the bats of the San Diego Padres.

Arlin hurled a four-hitter Tuesday night and got some unusually lusty hitting from the Padres to beat the Cardinals 6-1.

Elsewhere in the National League Tuesday, Pittsburgh ripped Montreal 10-6, Chicago shut out Houston 5-0, Philadelphia edged Atlanta 3-2, Los Angeles blitzed San Francisco 9-1 and Cincinnati split a doubleheader in New York, winning 5-2 before losing 9-4.

In the American League, New York clipped Cleveland 8-1, Oakland took Kansas City 7-1, Minnesota nipped Chicago 4-3 in 10 innings, Washington trimmed Detroit 4-2 and Milwaukee shut out California 2-0. Boston at Baltimore was rained out.

Arlin's sharp performance against the Cardinals was the 10th complete game in the last 16 starts for the Padres' staff. But San Diego has won only six of those games. In 69 games since May 23, the San Diego pitching staff has a 2.97 earned run average. Yet the club's won-lost mark was 27-42 over that span. Blame the batters.

But the Padres managed 13 hits Tuesday night and gave Arlin four runs in the first four innings. That was enough for the ex-Ohio State star, who boosted his record to 6-13 and needed just 98 pitches to do the job.

Arlin made it to spring training for the first time this year. Previous springs were devoted to his dental studies at Ohio State. They were completed last June and now Arlin can pull teeth when he's not pitching.

Gene Alley hammered a pair of home runs and Pittsburgh bunched six runs in the eighth inning to beat Montreal. Alley's second homer touched off the big inning and Manny Sanguillen ripped a bases-loaded triple. Then Vic Davalillo climaxed the rally with a two-run double.

Unbeaten Bob Veale earned the victory in relief, running his record to 8-0.

Rookie John Vukovich, who carried a .157 batting average into the game, drove home two Philadelphia runs including the winner with a single and a double as the Phillies knocked off Atlanta.

Hank Aaron's 31st homer of the season and 623rd of his career had balanced rookie Willie Montanez' early homer but Vukovich put the Phillies ahead with a seventh inning single after Don Money had doubled.

Rookie Earl Williams tied it again for the Braves in the ninth, jolting a two-out homer. But the Phillies bounced back with Roger Freed singling and Vukovich drilling a double to score pinch runner Larry Bowa with the winning tally.

Bill Hands tossed a five-hitter and Ron Santo hammered his 17th home run, helping the Cubs past Houston.

Santo's homer was the game's only run until the ninth when Chicago ganged up on reliever Fred Gladding for four more. J. C. Martin drove in two of the runs with a single.

Doyle Alexander hurled a six-hitter and the Dodgers exploded for four runs in the first inning and whipped San Francisco.

Steve Garvey, whose three-run homer beat the Giants in the ninth inning the night before, singled in two of the Dodgers' early runs as LA trimmed San Francisco's National League West lead to seven games.

Tony Perez hammered a three-run homer, climaxing a four-run Cincinnati rally in the sixth inning as the Reds knocked off the Mets in the first game of their doubleheader. Lee May also homered for the Reds.

In the nightcap, New York collected 12 hits as Charlie Williams pitched his first major league complete game. Rookie Tim Lincecum drove in three of the Met runs with a pair of doubles as winless Jim Merritt absorbed his 11th consecutive loss.

winger Alain Caron of Providence and defenseman Ray Fortin of Hershey.

Blue Is Hit With Twenty Game Pressure

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pressure of winning his 20th game is beginning to take its toll on Vida Blue, while the pressure of losing 20 games is beginning to ease on Denny McLain.

Blue, the young flamethrower left-hander of the Oakland Athletics, failed for the second straight time to win his 20th game and absorbed one of his worst beatings of the season before the A's rallied for a 7-5 victory over the Kansas City Royals Tuesday night.

McLain, the veteran Washington right-hander and lower of 15 games, came off the disabled list early Tuesday and gained credit for his sixth victory as the Senators struck for three runs in the ninth inning and beat his former Detroit teammates 4-2.

Elsewhere in the American League, Minnesota edged Chicago 4-3 in 10 innings; Milwaukee blanked California 2-0; New York blasted Cleveland 8-1, and Boston at Baltimore was rained out and will play a doubleheader tonight.

In the National League, Pittsburgh walloped Montreal 10-6; Cincinnati downed New York 5-2 before losing 9-4; Chicago took Houston 5-0; San Diego defeated St. Louis 6-1; Philadelphia nipped Atlanta 3-2, and Los Angeles trounced San Francisco 9-1.

Blue, the winningest pitcher in the majors with a 19-4 record, was cuffed for five runs and nine hits in five innings by the slumping Royals, who suffered their eighth straight setback.

"I was almost crazy from the pressure of this game," said the usually relaxed southpaw. Blue claimed he "felt good when I went out to the mound" against Kansas City. "I thought I had my usual stuff," he said.

Obviously he didn't. One of the hits off him was a three-run homer over the left center field fence by Bob Oliver

"I was almost crazy from the pressure of this game," said the usually relaxed southpaw. Blue claimed he "felt good when I went out to the mound" against Kansas City. "I thought I had my usual stuff," he said.

Obviously he didn't. One of the hits off him was a three-run homer over the left center field fence by Bob Oliver in the fourth inning, giving the Royals a 3-2 lead. Two other hits were doubles by Lou Piniella and Amos Otis.

Otis' two-bagger came when the Royals scored twice in the fifth, Blue's last inning.

Only some erratic baserunning by Piniella saved Blue from a possible defeat. After Piniella led off the fourth with a double, he was tagged out when he took a big turn round second.

After singling in the second run in the fifth and going to second on the throw home, he tried to score on Chuck Harrison's single, but was cut down at the plate. And in the eighth, Piniella smacked his second double, but was out trying for a triple.

Rick Monday's two-run homer in the seventh, pulling Oakland within 5-4, started the A's comeback. Singles by pinch hitter Tommy Davis, Dick Green and Bert Campaneris produced the tying run in the ninth. Monday followed with a double, driving in the winning runs.

McLain, the losingest pitcher in the majors, who had been on the 21-day disabled list because of an inflammation of his right arm, gained credit for his sixth victory—and first since June 30—when Washington overcame a 2-1 Detroit lead with three runs in the ninth inning.

Bernie Allen opened the Senators' winning rally with a single, went to third on Tom McCraw's double and scored on Tim Cullen's single off the glove of shortstop Eddie Brinkman. An error by third baseman Aurelio Rodriguez on a grounder by pinch hitter Jeff Burroughs let in the tie-breaking run. And Dave Nelson's single knocked in the final run.

When McLain was sidelined on July 11, there was a report in a Detroit paper that he might be "washed up." "This might dispel talk of that," he said, following his six-hit, eight-inning effort against the Tigers.

Tony Oliva capped a three-run Minnesota uprising in the eighth inning with a tying two-run double, then doubled again in the 10th, driving in Rod Carew, who had singled, with the Twins' winning run against Chicago. Rick McKinney knocked in two White Sox runs with a homer and sacrifice fly.

Washington Franchise to Be Discussed

CHICAGO (AP) — The American League is expected to discuss the financially troubled Washington baseball franchise Wednesday when the joint baseball meetings are expected to end.

"We didn't discuss the Washington situation at all today," said President Joe Cronin Tuesday night. "But we expect to bring up the subject tomorrow. In fact we didn't take up any league matters, we simply discussed the commissioner's agenda."

Commissioner Bowie Kuhn held a joint meeting of the American and National Leagues Tuesday in which a variety of topics were discussed including promotions, films, drug education, broadcast, the performance bonus rule and cutting down on spring training.

"The only matter on which action is expected," said Kuhn, "is the shortening of spring training."

When the American League continues its meeting Wednesday, Kuhn expects to be called in when the Washington matter comes up.

However, he added he didn't expect any definite action to come up in the Washington matter.

seven innings and Ken Sanders combined for Milwaukee's 18th shutout of the season, stopping California on six hits. Paul Ratliff provided all the offense they needed with a two-run homer in the fifth.

Sandy Alomar and Tony Gonzalez each had one hit for the Angels, extending their hitting streaks to 17 and 14 games, respectively.

The Yankees backed Mike Kekich's five-hit pitching with an eight-run second inning against Three Cleveland pitchers. Felipe Alou led off the outburst with a single and later singled in a run, while Kekich walked twice, once with the bases loaded.

Jack, Arnie May Go Ahead Moneywise

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer
AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, two of pro golf's millionaires, have a chance to seize the 1971 money winning lead in the $150,000 American Golf Classic starting Thursday.

A field of 103 will tee off in the first of four rounds in the 72-hole tournament over the par 70, 7,180-yard Firestone South course.

The low 70 and ties will survive the 36-hole cut Friday and the final round Sunday will be nationally-televised (ABC).

While No. 1 1971 money earner Lee Trevino is getting a Texas hero's welcome this week in El Paso, Nicklaus and Palmer both have a shot at passing him on the PGA dollar list.

Nicklaus, second with $187,763 to Trevino's $197,219, can move on top with the $30,000 first prize, $17,100 for second or $10,650 third place money.

Palmer, third with $184,799 in winnings this year, needs a first or second to move past Trevino.

All of the former Classic champions except 1961 winner Jay Hebert will take part in the 10-year-old tournament.

Besides Trevino and Hebert, No. 4 money winner Gary Player will bypass this stop. Player is resting at his South African home. Billy Casper, the third golfing millionaire, also is not competing here.

Frank Beard won the 1970 title with a four-under-par 276 despite no practice rounds. Beard was home in Louisville while his wife had a baby the Tuesday of the tournament.

The field will be completed with the top five finishers in the satellite Little American Golf Classic, which wound up its 34 holes today on the Firestone North layout.

ROCKVILLE, Md. (AP) — Louis Lee of Heber Springs, Ark., the Arkansas representative in the U.S. Junior Open golf tournament, finished the first round with an 80, putting him in a 15-way tie for 80th place.

MIAMI DOLPHINS

PROSPECTUS—Don Shula wasted no time showing how a pro football team should be run, on the field. (Off the field, the Dolphins are something else.) He's a positive guy, as firm as his jaw, and the young Dolphins responded. Now they have confidence. But they didn't get a lot of help in draft. Lost No. 1 choice for plucking Shula from Colts. And it's different playing under pressure of being a winner. They'll need luck to go all the way.

Offense

PASSING — Bob Griese straightened out in mid-season to become standout performer. He has mobility, which is fashionable these days, and accurate arm. Still some skeptics about his deep throwing. Rating—B—

RUNNING—They're tough. Larry Csonka's no gazelle, but he can bulldoze even defensive linemen with his size. 250. And partner Jim Kiick, with fashionable handlebars, does it all—catches ball superbly. For real speed, they turn Mercury Morris loose. Rating—A—

RECEIVING—Getting Paul Warfield from Browns last year was bonanza. He's all-pro and right at peak of form. Neither Howard Twilley nor Karl Noonan can match him in speed at other wide post, so Otto Stowe was drafted. Marv Fleming's underrated as vet right end. Rating—B—

LINE—Larry Little's example of how a guy can thrive in comfortable setup. In one year, he's become premier running guard, a hole-opener for important running attack. Norm Evans is old-timer of unit at 28, so you can see why Shula expects even better performance from his blocking corps. Rating—B—

Defense

LINE — Coaches keep grumbling they've got to get more pass rush. But they're getting their share of pressure on passer from at least two guys, tackle Manny Fernandez and end Bill Stanfill. Fernandez, little undersize for his job at 6-2, has been revelation. Stanfill has the physical assets, hasn't used them all. But search is on for more like them. Rating—B—

LINEBACKING—Gambled last year on a free agent—Doug Swift—and throw-away draft choice—Mike Kolen—and got results. Put them on outside, either side of vet Nick Buoniconti, who had another fine year. He's short but electric. He's also 30—only man on either starting unit who's reached that age. Rating—B—

SECONDARY — Gambled big in '70 (figuratively). Used two rookies, Jack Scott and Curtis Johnson, with two unseasoned pros, Dick Anderson and Lloyd Humphord. And got handsome results. Scott was a whiz (he did have experience in Canada). He teams with Anderson at the safety posts to provide super protection against long bombs. Rating—B—

KICKING—Garo Ypreman practically had to talk himself on team, and the little soccer-style kicker was sensational (22 for 28), just as good long as short. Larry Seiple, backup tight end, handles punting well. Rating—A—

Prediction

Club that's going to be winner. But there are two ahead of them. Third in AFC East.

A Two-Minute Drill

I would never tee it up in a pro tournament without hitting balls and putting for at least 45 minutes. But I know that the average player, who has trouble firing in a round of golf, often arrives at the course with only a couple of minutes before his tee time.

span? First, I would have tried to prepare myself mentally on the way to the course.

Once there, I'd do some quick toe-touching exercises to stretch my back muscles. Then I'd make a few big turns with a club behind my back and under my elbows.

Finally, I'd take my driver and take as many full swings as I could. The looser you get, the harder you can swing. This is the club you're going to have to hit to start your round.

I know that a lot of fellows will swing two and even three clubs at once, waiting to hit away, but I think it's a very bad idea. Your driver will feel too tight when you address the ball, and you won't have the control you should.

Thomas Also Leaves the Patriots

By BRUCE LOWITT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Duane Thomas is alive and kicking and living in Los Angeles—probably.

The National Football League's rookie of the year in the National Conference, traded by Dallas to the New England back Joe Ferguson and had boys to the Super Bowl, vanished from the Patriots' training camp Tuesday and flew to the West Coast.

Thomas eluded newsmen at Los Angeles International Airport and was apparently ensconced in his Los Angeles apartment today.

"They don't want me. They asked me to leave," was all the 23-year-old running back said at Boston's Logan Airport after packing his bags and departing from camp at the University of Massachusetts in nearby Amherst.

Patriots' General Manager Upton Bell would only comment:

"On advice of our lawyers, I cannot say any more about this situation at this time. I will say only that this is not due to contract negotiations."

It was a contract dispute that brought Thomas to the Patriots. He refused to report to Dallas' training camp, seeking renegotiation of his three-year contract, reportedly for $80,000 a year. The Cowboys said no.

Then they traded Thomas and two other players to the Patriots for running back Carl Garrett and New England's No. 1 draft choice in 1972.

Garrett, meanwhile, left the Cowboys' training camp in Thousand Oaks, Calif., but for a different reason. He returned to Boston to fulfill a military reserve commitment.

Several other players were also on the move Tuesday.

The New Orleans Saints traded seven-year tight end Ray Poage to Atlanta, the Falcons acquired second-year defensive back Tony Plummer

El Paso Has Big Welcome for Trevino

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — "Welcome home, Lee Trevino. Girl's panties, 2 for $1."

It was a sign on the marquee of a shopping center in suburban El Paso. The second line may not have been entirely in keeping with the spirit of the occasion, but the message was there.

It was a spontaneous outpouring of affection for the have-not who made it big, this Lee Trevino Day in El Paso and neighboring Juarez, Mexico.

The officials were there, the U.S. ambassador who read a congratulatory letter from President Nixon, the governor of Texas, the mayor of El Paso, generals from nearby Fort Bliss, Hollywood celebrities.

But mostly it was "los popes," the poor ones, the have-nots, who celebrated Tuesday as El Paso welcomed Lee Trevino back home for the first time since he swept the U.S., Canadian and British Open golf titles—a feat without precedent.

They lined the streets five deep, hung out of second-story windows, clung by their finger-nails from the sloping rows of houses, climbed high onto rooftops advertising signs to get a glimpse of the guy who came from nowhere to the front rank of pro golf's superstars.

There was a 20-car motorcade through El Paso and Juarez, with kids busting through police lines to pat Trevino on the back, beg his autograph as the open car went by, the boys and girls trotting along side as

U.S. Convict Boxing in Pan-Am Games

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — When Bobby Lee Hunter steps into the ring at the Pan American Games, he can always look over the ropes and see a burly, dark-haired man from Columbia, S.C., sitting in the front row.

The man is waiting to take Bobby Lee back to jail.

From his corner, Bobby Lee throws a smile in the man's direction and the man responds with an encouraging gesture.

Who would imagine that the fighter is a convict, serving a 15-year sentence for manslaughter and the man at the ringside is a cop technically here to see he doesn't run away.

It's more like father and son although their skins are a different color," says the U.S. boxing team manager James McCarron.

"The kid loves the guy," Bobby Lee's black team manager, corrections officer Ray Satterfield, 35, is white.

It's truly one of the most bizarre and poignant stories of these or any other games.

Bobby Lee was just 17, a wild kid on the streets of Charleston, S.C., four years ago when one night got into a shoving match with an older man in a neighborhood store. A girl was in-he scribbled his signature over and over again.

"This is home," he said. "I moved here in 1966 and the people accepted me immediately, even before I did anything but. They're always accepted me for what I am."

"I thought I'd had some thrills before, like winning the U.S. Open, or the British, but this is something else."

It was his first trip home in almost four months, four months in which he had competed almost constantly, week after week in three countries.

"I don't even know where I live," he said. "Since I've been gone, my wife sold our old house, bought a new one and moved in and I don't even know the address."

lived. The man swung at the girl and hit her. Bobby Lee explains. "I got mad and pulled a knife."

Before it was over the other man was dead and Bobby Lee, although his defenders argued aggravated assault, was in the Columbia Correctional Institute on a 15-year sentence.

Bobby Lee worked in the laundry. He took up boxing as recreation. He was good with his fists. Although small, 110 pounds, he hits like a hammer.

He started going to tournaments and winning them. He won the 1971 National AAU flyweight class. This qualified him for the Pan Am Trials. He won there, too.

It put us in a rather uncomfortable situation," said Clifford Buck, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee. "We debated a long time whether we should permit him to represent us. We were worried about our international image.

But we got some very nice letters praising the man. One from Senator Fritz Hollings. Another from Warden W. T. Cave of the correctional institute. We decided if we could invite him to our trials we would have to let him compete.

Another complication arose. Bobby Lee is a prisoner. Should he be let out alone? It was decided a corrections officer should go along.

Bobby Lee asked for Satterfield himself, explained McCarron. "He had befriended the youngster. Bobby Lee said he wouldn't go without him."

So the venture began—Bobby Lee and Satterfield are to return to Columbia.

Bobby Lee won his quarter-final bout Tuesday night, but pointing Daniel Lopez of Panama.

Mississippi Penal Farm Under Probe

BLYTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Mississippi County Judge A. A. Banks, prompted by the wounding of an inmate at the Mississippi County Penal Farm, has ordered a full-scale investigation into the operation of the institution.

Banks said Monday that Isaac Newsome, serving six months at the farm for petty larceny, was shot in the leg with a .38-caliber pistol. Newsome was being treated at an Osceola hospital, but Banks said the wound was not believed serious.

Banks said the guard who allegedly fired the shot, Charles Conley, had been suspended and relieved of his duties until the investigation is complete. Banks said the incident also had been reported to the prosecuting attorney's office.

The judge said he would appoint a seven-member committee from the Quorum Court to investigate the operation of the farm with the objective being to report to the full court its recommendations as to future operation of the county farm.

Banks also said that all cities and counties having prisoner contracts with the Mississippi institution were being notified that acceptance of prisoners from them was being curtailed until further notice. He said that in some instances, courts of jurisdiction will be asked to come to Mississippi County to take back certain prisoners at the county farm.

He said there were about 65 prisoners at the farm.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Check With Doctor About Pregnancy

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb — Four years ago I had cancer of the cervix and was treated with cobalt for one month, but did not have a hysterectomy. I am still in my 40s. Is it possible for me to get pregnant again?

Dear Reader — Usually heavy doses of radiation, like the cobalt treatment you have had, stops all ovarian function. It has the same effect in this regard as surgical removal of the ovaries, including inducing an artificial menopause.

I never tell anyone they cannot get pregnant. You should have an examination and find out. Pregnancy after radiation, if it is possible, is not always wise because radiation increases the likelihood of having a deformed baby. Since the rest of your letter states you have children perhaps your concern is to prevent pregnancy.

Dear Dr. Lamb — Will you say something about our stomachs? My husband has been in constant distress going on four years. After X rays, his doctor says his stomach problems are anxiety and pain is not physical. His diet has not been restricted. I can't understand why his doctor doesn't prescribe a limited diet. My husband also worries he'll lose weight if he is on a limited diet and he is thin enough already. Every time the TV is on there is an ad about gas bubbles, stomach distress, so it must be common.

Dear Reader — Your husband's doctor probably told him that there was no physical cause for his pain, like an ulcer, that was causing his discomfort. All pain is physical, even if the cause is anxiety — and it hurts just as much.

The most common cause of indigestion in our society is coffee, cigarettes, alcohol, cola drinks and stress. The latter often goes along with the other bad habits. Anyone with indigestion — certainly for four years — should stop all of these at once. Individuals can develop chronic gastritis (inflammation of the stomach) from these habits, and improper eating. This problem does not show on an X ray. It is cured by changing one's habits. If the difficulty persists, then it is time to think about medicine. The wrong kind of foods can cause indigestion but the items mentioned are much more often at fault. The stomach is a pretty tough organ if you give it half a chance.

As I have mentioned several times some people have an intolerance for milk — after stopping the bad habits it is worth a trial to stop milk entirely.

Chronic frustration can and does cause stomach problems and leads to ulcers. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dean Jones, unscarred veteran of two sorties into televisionland, is eager for a third. "The Chicago Teddy Bears," a CBS situation comedy, will have the tall, soft-voiced actor playing a Prohibition Era speakeasy operator in conflict with the mob—a lovable band of incompetents.

Chicago history during the 1920s, with its bloody gang warfare, was not exactly a barrel of laughs, but Jones says that his version of history will have the mob looking like "a bunch of pussycats."

The series comes at a time when organized ethnic groups are on the alert for slurs and stereotypes, so a fantasy about Chicago mob activity in the period could be on dangerously thin ice.

"We're deliberately trying to avoid offense," Jones reported. "We don't kill anybody, although in one episode the plot hangs on a contract for a killing, but it is all based on a misunderstanding."

Jones' character is called Linc McCray, a bland enough handle. "Big Nick Marr," played by standup comic Art Metrano, is the head of the "Chicago Mob"—originally the name was Marco but it was anglicized before filming started.

Jones has a special interest in the series—his Dean Jones Production Co. has a piece of the show—but since he has firm commitments for three theatrical motion pictures including another family-style Disney film he has already starred in seven he is not worried about keeping busy or solvent.

His first series, "Ensign O'Toole," started on NBC eight seasons back and succumbed after one season in the ratings race. ABC picked it up and reran it the next season in prime time "just when the competition, 'Perry Mason' and 'Dr. Kildare,' were peaking off," and the show unexpectedly turned into a modest hit. "They wanted to make more," Jones said, "but I

When you know from your count one opponent holds all the missing cards in a suit, you also know he holds any honors that are held against you. This is known as a complete count. When you know he holds more cards in the suit than his partner, you know he is more likely to hold any missing honors. That is known as a partial count. A partial count is a good guide but it is not a sure thing.

There is a second form of counting to help you locate missing high cards. Count your opponents' points and see what this count will tell you.

We aren't sure that we like South's four-heart bid but he did make it. West opened the king of spades and continued with the deuce after East played the queen. East led the four of clubs back.

South won the trick with the ace and proceeded to lead his king of diamonds. West won with the ace and returned a club. Now South led his queen of trumps, went up with dummy's ace and picked East's singleton king.

It was all a matter of counting. He had played his king of diamonds before touching trumps to locate the ace and West had played it. West was also marked with the ace and king of spades. He could not hold another king, since he had dealt and passed. Therefore, South knew where the king of trumps was. He did not know that it would drop but he did know that a finesse would be a hopeless play. (NEWSPAPER ENTERPRISE ASSN.)

What do you do now?

A—Bid six diamonds. Your partner should have a long diamond suit to the ace and a little something on the side. Your king-queen of diamonds justify this slight overbid.

Instead of bidding three diamonds, your partner has jumped to three no-trump over your two spades. What do you do now?

wouldn't do it unless we could get the original cast—and that was impossible."

Then came "What It All About, World?" for ABC which lasted 17 shows.

"We had a good smart satirical show," he said, "but it came just when the Smothers Brothers were having their troubles. The panicky network people said—two weeks before we started—we couldn't hurt anybody's feelings. So there we were, with the shell of a show that had lost all its bite."

Jones, an Alabama native, started out to be a singer and turned actor almost by a casting accident. He has appeared as star in a couple of hit Broadway shows, most recently the New York production of "Company."

Mississippi Votes Waller, Sullivan

By JAMES SAGGUS
Associated Press Writer
JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Lt. Gov. Charles Sullivan and attorney Bill Waller today rode mounting returns toward a Democratic gubernatorial runoff to decide who will oppose black leader Charles Evers in the Nov. 2 general election.

The Democratic finalists, both losers in earlier efforts to win the state's highest office, led the field of seven whites from the outset in returns from Tuesday's primary voting.

Sullivan, who soft-pedaled the race issue in a low-key campaign, had about 40 per cent of the votes as the slow process of counting paper ballots passed the halfway point. Waller had about 27 per cent.

Election officials expected close to 800,000 votes—a state

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, record—because of newly enfranchised teen-age and black voters, but there was little indication the new voters altered the outcome.

With 1,264 of the state's 2,063 precincts reporting, the count was:

Sullivan 169,082, Waller, 125,779, Jimmy Swan 67,956, Roy Adams 25,514, Ed Pittman 21,083, Marshall Perry 10,022, Andrew Sullivan 9,918.

The runoff will be Aug. 24 if no candidate gets a majority of the votes.

Evers had called for blacks to vote for Swan, an avowed segregationist, in the primary on grounds that Swan would be the easiest to beat in the general election. However black sources said most Negroes regarded this as a joke.

Most of the 200-odd black candidates for local offices will run as independents in November, but the 40 who ran as Democrats met with some success—one victory for county supervisor and several runoff spots.

Eagles Find Sanctuary in Florida

Printed by Offset
ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — A family of bald eagles has moved into an area where 100 new homes were planned, and the builder has declared the site a sanctuary.

Dick Bonds, president of the company developing Sterling Park, said Tuesday that as long as the eagles remain, their nest will not be disturbed by builders.

The eagle nest was sighted ment enfranchising 18 year olds and black registration drives boosted the estimates of eligible voters to 1,084,000, including 77,000 whites and 307,000 blacks. Negro registration in 1967 was estimated at 180,000.

Checks across the state indicated the black turnout proportionately as heavy as the white.

by architects for the project and Bonds' decision was immediate: The eagles stay.

"I don't see how there could have been any other decision," he said.

Bonds said the nest has two full-sized adults and one fledgling. He's not sure how old the birds are but says they have a life span of 25-35 years.

The birds mate for life and although they migrate north in the summer, they always return to the same nest if it's not disturbed, he said.

"I saw them from a distance, it was late in the afternoon. The sun was setting and they were wheeling around a lake. They were beautiful, just beautiful," Bonds said.

The local Audubon Society told Bonds that studies indicate the eagles need a radius of 660 feet of wild land from their nest if they are to remain.

He subsequently designated 32 acres of choice woodland surrounding the nest as a sanctuary.

PRESIDENT IS (from page one)

ing in the Austin case, Nixon said, the administration will back away from an alternative plan drawn up by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare requiring cross-town busing to achieve a racial balance in the city's schools.

Nixon also sought to ensure none of the $1.5 billion he seeks from Congress to ease the trauma of Southern school desegregation will be used to pay for busing—extensive or minimal. He said HEW Secretary Elliot L. Richardson has submitted to Congress an amendment "that will expressly prohibit the expenditure of any of those funds for busing."

Nixon's statement followed an announcement by Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell that the Justice Department will appeal the July 19 ruling by U.S. Dist. Court Judge Jack B. Roberts in the Austin case.

Roberts rejected the HEW busing plan, favoring instead one drawn up by Austin school

Wednesday, August 4, 1971 officials requiring only part-time integration.

The HEW plan was the first drawn up by the administration following the Supreme Court's ruling in April that busing is a permissible means of achieving school desegregation.

Nixon said in appealing Roberts' ruling, "The Justice Department will disavow the HEW plan on behalf of the government."

He pointedly added: "I have instructed the attorney general and the secretary of health, education and welfare that they are to work with individual school districts to hold busing to the minimum required by law."

Despite Nixon's antibusing stance and Mitchell's assertion that the appeal "was required because the order of the district court did not comply with prior decisions of higher courts," the action was attacked by Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.
